POUR SOCIETY IS NOW OPEN

The much-anticipated gastropub, helmed by chefs Greg Lowry and longtime cohort Matthew Lovelace, has opened at Gateway Memorial City. Pour Society was conceived to accommodate both everyday and special occasion dining with a menu showcasing reimagined Southern favorites. The menu includes Mexican Fried Chicken Thighs, the Pour'k Burger and fried oysters to name a few.

Dinner will be served:
Monday-Thursday 5-9:30 p.m.,
Friday and Saturday 5-10:30 p.m. and Sunday 5-9 p.m.

VIA COLORI STREET PAINTING HAPPY HOUR AT GATEWAY

Memorial City presents Live at Gateway with an artistic twist. Join us as the famed street painting group Via Colori showcases four of their artists' work. The event also features lite bites from Churrascos, KUU, Pour Society and Vallone's and special drinks and complimentary beer (while supplies last).

Wednesday, September 30, 5:30-7:30 p.m.
Promenade, Gateway Memorial City, 947 Gessner

DANCE NIGHT AT GATEWAY

Come and enjoy an evening of Latin dancing to the sounds of Charlie Perez y La Tribu Cubana. Special performance and complimentary dance lessons by Luna Tango Productions. A selection of beer and wine will be available for purchase.

September 26, 7-9 p.m.
